

For Immediate Release

Seb Goldswain is a South African guitarist, composer and performing artist best known for his virtuoso guitar playing and high-energy stage presence. Armed with either an acoustic guitar or an electric guitar and a Marshall stack, Seb has the rare ability of wowing and entertaining crowds with nothing but his original compositions, energetic performances and dazzling guitar playing. With influences like Tommy Emmanuel, Frank Zappa, and Steve Morse (all world-class guitarists/composers) Seb expresses the rare talent of being able to entertain a pop crowd, as well as Jazz, Rock, Blues and Heavy Metal crowds, all with his original music and masterful guitar playing.

Seb will be making his way down to Cape Town from Durban this coming February for his next tour of the city, to continue building a growing market in the Cape of Good Hope.

Pairing up with three ace acts at the city's three best live music venues, we trust that this focused tour will bring smiles to the Mother City's music lovers.

We hope to introduce Seb on radio interviews and in some online and offline publications to promote his upcoming tour and will appreciate any assistance in announcing his plans for Cape Town.
